CyberSmarties.com standards

CyberSmarties.com gives Primary School Kids the power to connect and share in a controlled and safe environment. CyberSmarties.com's first priority is safety for its members, it's why we are here and whilst we take every precaution to prevent bullying of any kind, it is always possible that we miss something and take no responsibility for misuse by members or against members or schools. Only a Teacher/Principal may sign up students on behalf of their relevant school. What we do guarantee is that safety is our first concern and will take immediate action to prevent any misuse. We do not under any circumstances share personal information on members or schools with any third party. We do not gather personal information such as names, date of birth's, email addresses or Guardian contact details. Please review these standards. They will help you understand what type of expression is acceptable, and what type of content may be reported and removed.

Violence and Threats

Safety is CyberSmarties.com's top priority. We remove content and may escalate to law enforcement when we perceive a genuine risk of physical harm, or a direct threat to public safety. You may not credibly threaten others, or organize acts of real-world violence. Organizations with a record of terrorist or violent criminal activity are not allowed to maintain a presence on our site. We also prohibit promoting, planning or celebrating any of your actions if they have, or could, result in financial harm to others, including theft and vandalism.

Self-harm

CyberSmarties.com takes threats of self-harm very seriously. We remove any promotion or encouragement of self-mutilation, eating disorders or hard drug abuse. We also work with suicide prevention agencies around the world to provide assistance for people in distress.

Bullying and Harassment

CyberSmarties.com does not tolerate bullying or harassment. We allow users to speak freely privately but take action on all reports of abusive behaviour directed at private individuals. Repeatedly targeting other users with unwanted friend requests or messages is a form of harassment.

Hate speech

CyberSmarties.com does not permit hate speech, but distinguishes between serious and humorous speech. While we encourage you to challenge ideas, institutions, events, and practices, we do not permit individuals or groups to attack others based on their race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sex, gender, sexual orientation, disability or medical condition.

Graphic Content

CyberSmarties.com at this time does not allow student members to upload pictures or videos as part of their private messages. This is done in the interests of safety and anti-cyberbullying policy. Our belief is that members become friends and share experiences based on common personal interests. When members upload avatars as part of their personal profile, we expect that they will share in a responsible manner. That includes choosing carefully the audience for the content. Any pictures we believe are of a sexual or offence nature will be removed.

Nudity

CyberSmarties.com has a strict policy against the sharing of pornographic content and/or any explicitly sexual content where a minor is involved. We have a zero tolerance policy on this. While members may feel that their personal rights are being imposed upon, safety for the common good is our first priority and will be in contact with the respective school regarding what we believe to be inappropriate pictures.

Identity and Privacy

On CyberSmarties.com members may connect using their real names and identities. We ask that you refrain from publishing the personal information of others without their consent. Claiming to be another person, creating a false presence for an organization, or creating multiple accounts undermines community and violates CyberSmarties.com's terms.

Before sharing content on CyberSmarties.com, please be sure you have the right to do so. We ask that you respect copyrights, trademarks, and other legal rights.

Regulated Goods

It is not permitted to complete transactions involving regulated goods on our platform. Reporting abuse

If you see something on CyberSmarties.com that you believe violates our terms, you should report it to us on admin@CyberSmarties.com. Please keep in mind that reporting a piece of content does not guarantee that it will be removed from the site. Because of the diversity of our community, it's possible that something could be disagreeable or disturbing to you without meeting the criteria for being removed or blocked. For this reason, we also offer personal controls over what you see, such as the ability to hide or quietly cut ties with people, Pages, or applications that offend you.
